Compilation of abstracts

The presenters of the presentations received well in advanced the guidelines for preparing abstracts and presentations. The guidelines provided some advice for setting up the presentation and gave information about the expected audience of the workshop.

Each presenter had to deliver a short abstract of their presentation in English (10-15 lines) and a short (5 line maximum) biography to the FEAP secretariat two weeks before the workshop. The abstract and the biography were distributed at each Workshop. The compilations of abstracts of the 7 last workshops are attached to this document.

PROFET Policy Workshops

Guidelines for Speakers

GUIDELINES FOR PREPARING ABSTRACTS AND PRESENTATIONS

The PROFET Policy project organises 9 trans-national workshops, during the next 2 years, covering policy issues within the aquaculture and fisheries sector throughout Europe. The prime goal of these Workshops is to establish an open dialogue between the production and scientific interests in order to identify how research can respond to and improves its adaptability to issues affecting the fisheries and aquaculture sectors. It is anticipated that the workshops will not only provide the opportunity for interested stakeholders to become better informed on European policies that affect their sector, but will also generated the ability to encourage and allow producers to be able to 'have their say' on current issues and trends.

The general structure of all of the PROFET Policy Workshops is to have several thematic sessions where a short introduction will be given by the Chairman, which will be followed by 20 minute presentations on specific subject areas relevant to the theme. Each thematic session will finish with 30 minutes for Question and Debate. A final session for discussion and conclusions of the main topic will conclude each Workshop.

- The average time available for your presentation is 20 minutes, so please be concise and clear – use PowerPoint presentations where possible.
- Try to identify issues that you perceive as being important and where RTD should be able to provide the solution.
- If you can, differentiate clearly between species, technological and sectoral issues.
- There will be attendees from other countries; please do not speak too quickly and speak clearly.
- We hope that as much time as possible will be available for debate; a little bit of rehearsal will show whether you will overrun your allocation. Please remember that the Chairman has the authority to stop your presentation should you overrun your time allocated.
- Finally, the goal of the PROFET Policy Workshops is to identify the most appropriate topics for RTD, whether these are European or National in nature.

Please look at the titles of the other speakers (we will circulate all abstracts to speakers once they have been received) to be able to avoid a 'conflict of interest' within the short time available. If you have issues that you wish to raise outside of your main subject, these may be more appropriate as a question to another speaker – within his/her topic.

Abstract

A short abstract of your presentation in English (10-15 lines) and a short (5 line maximum) biography should be provided in Word-format to the FEAP secretariat as soon as possible (deadline 5th March). The abstract and the biography will be distributed at each Workshop and will be published on the PROFET Policy website (www.profetpolicy.info)

Submitted to FEAP secretariat:

E-mail: secretariat@feap.info

Please use first 8 letters of first author as filename; e.g. Locatell
You will be informed of the receipt of your abstract/article/presentation.

Presentation

Your presentation can be provided at the day of the presentation itself. The organisers of the workshops will keep a copy of your presentation. All presentations will be published on the PROFET Policy website and included in the final proceedings and conclusions of the PROFET Policy series of Workshops.

Layout of presentation

The choice of layout of the presentation is that of the author. As we only would like to mention that:

- PowerPoint presentations with dynamic content do NOT print well. If you choose this option, please review the printed content prior to despatch and check that it is understandable in printed form.
- We will print several sheets of the Powerpoint presentation on one page, so please use large fonts in your presentation.

Proof reading

The abstracts and presentations will be produced directly from the copy submitted by the authors. This means that there will be no proof reading of your text and that you will be entirely responsible for the quality submitted. The compilers, however, reserve the right to refuse abstracts/presentations of bad quality and/or ask for improvement. Editing for uniformity may be necessary; the compilers reserve the right to edit presentations for this purpose but will only publish edited documents with the approval of the author. The "Proceedings" will be published by the PROFET policy partners upon completion of the PROFET policy Workshop schedule.
