

European Atlas of the seas

New European Atlas of the seas

Mid-term contract - Key facts

A fully revamped Atlas was released in June 2018

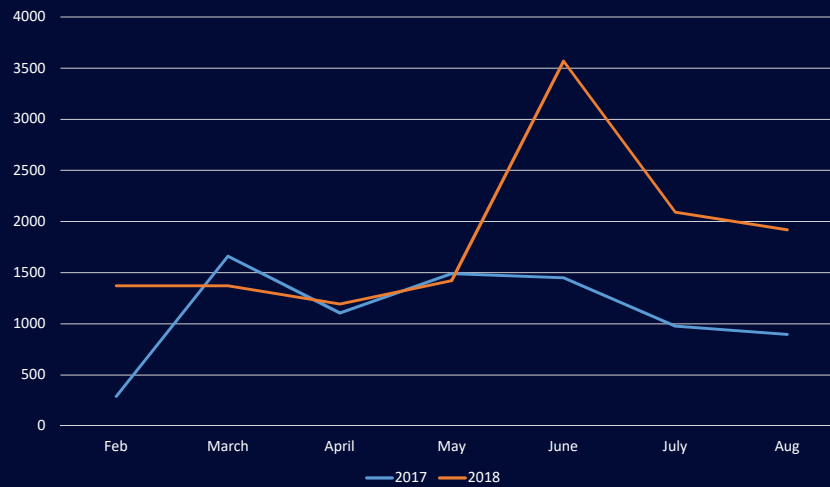

The catalogue of map layers has been increased by 200%

Most of the layers are now updated (automatically updated)

The communication plan entered into force in May 2018 and is running with a clear baseline:

*«Explore, collate and create your own sea map.
Learn more about Europe's seas and coasts, their environment, related human activities and European policies.»*

The number of visitors has increased from an average of 1250/month to 2500/month

The Atlas receives a growing interest from a wide profile of users:

« Informative, educational,
simple and playful »
